Due to illness we canceled last weeks RCIA meeting and rescheduled it for this coming Tuesay, January 3rd at 7:00 pm, in the Spiritual Life Center. We will meet approximately every other Tuesday for 1 1/2 hours to discuss various aspects of our Catholic Faith. RCIA
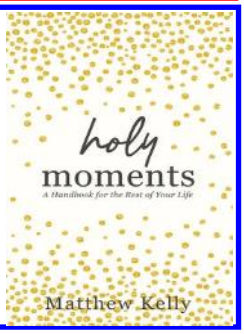
A Journey In Faith

It will soon be a new year and time for taxes. The year-end report for taxes will likely be mailed in early January. According to the IRS, donations must be physically received in the year they are claimed. So be sure to get your checks and envelopes turned in by December 31st. Also, if you have moved and your mailing address has changed, make sure you notify us so we can update our address files for when we send out the mailings.

We still have a few copies of "Holy Moments" available as well as "I Heard God Laugh" written by Matthew Kelly. There are also a number of other books available for purchase in the Kiosks in the back of the church as well as other free books people have left for others on the heater and in the rack on the right in the back of the church.



The downstairs bathroom is finally 100% complete and ready for occupancy. All the towel racks, rugs, soaps, shampoo and body wash are all in place and ready for guests.

Invoices for bulletin advertising will be sent out this coming week, be sure to watch for them in the mail. If you wish to change your ad or cancel it, just let Fr. Joe know and he will take care of it. If you would like to help support the bulletin printing efforts with an ad, you can also let Fr. Joe know. Be sure to support our advertisers.

We have new tenants in the Old Church/Hall starting January 1st. Quinn Jacobson has taken over the lease from Victoria Flynn and will be running her Tiny Town Childcare from 6:00 am till 6:00 pm Monday through Friday. She says she hopes to focus on serving people that work at the prison. She will be licensed for up to 15 children, so we will have the pitter-patter of little feet once again gracing our grounds. That and all the high pitched screams of happy children. Please keep Quinn and her new Childcare in your prayers.

David and Michael are doing the final cleanup on the basement remodel project. Moving furniture in will be next.
