Make a Holy Moment

Fr. Jack Murray has left his house at 901 Pennsylvania Ave. as a bequest in his will to Immaculate Conception Church. We are in the process of arranging the transfer of the title at this time and Fr. Joe will be meeting with the Finance Committee to discuss what we will do with the property. A quick market analysis gave an estimate of its worth as approximately $235,000. His immediate family is in the process of removing any personal memorabilia and the plan is to transfer the property to the church the first week of July if all goes well. Thank You Fr. Jack for this most gracious gift to our parish.

The Riley and Jamie helped load up a trailer full of old furniture and "junk" to be hauled off to the dump. The halls and storage rooms are getting clearer of a bunch of clutter. But we still have a little more cleanup and organization work to do in the Saint Mary's Center.

Riley and Jamie spent an afternoon cleaning out an old office in the Old Hall, now the Tiny Town Child Care, to set up 7 new shelving units for the planned Children's Boutique. This will be a place where families that may be struggling can pick up some diapers, wipes and children's clothing if things are tight. We will be partnering with New To You who will give us the children's clothing that cycles out each month. In the future we may ask for used clothing, toys, and other items that might be useful for a family with children under 6 years old.

Turns out Jamie Severson's family has an antique store in the Bozeman area and he was used to fixing up furniture for their store. It must have been God's providence that brought him here for his assignment when we had a table that needed some work. Thank You Jamie & God.

Riley and Jamie went with our youth group on a hike in the Lost Lake area on Thursday. Afterwards they were treated to pizza and ice cream in Anaconda to replenish their tired bodies. This will be their last weekend with us so be sure to wish them well.
