We removed an old desk and some shelving materials from the Old Hall (Day Care) to make room for the new "Tiny Town Boutique." They are sitting under the alcove behind the Saint Mary's Center and are available to anyone that may want them. One caution though, one of the legs on the desk is loose and will drop off when you lift it. Everything else seems to be in good working order. Just let Fr. Joe know if you want it.

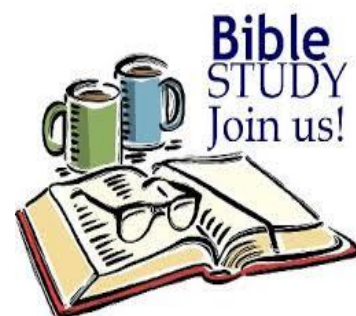

Make a Holy Moment

Fr. Jack Murray has left his house at 901 Pennsylvania Ave. as a bequest in his will to Immaculate Conception Church. We are in the process of arranging the transfer of the title at this time and Fr. Joe will be meeting with the Finance Committee to discuss what we will do with the property. A quick market analysis gave an estimate of its worth as approximately $235,000. His immediate family is in the process of removing any personal memorabilia and the plan is to transfer the property to the church the first week of July if all goes well. Thank You Fr. Jack for this most gracious gift to our parish.

Beginning July 12th for 3 Wednesdays, Deacon Paul will be giving a scripture study on Paul's Letter to the Galatians. All are invited to come and bring your bibles so we can discuss this marvelous letter. Class will start at 7:00 PM Wednesday July 12th and end at 8:30 PM.

Tiny Town BOUTIQUE

Kathy Isaacson's daughter Molly was here visiting and Fr. Joe asked if she could create a logo for the new "Tiny Town Boutique". She is a professional graphic artist and whipped a few up for us. We have all sorts of diapers and donated clothing, so now a little organization is needed. Do we have any volunteers willing to help sort things out?

Flowers blooming everywhere. I guess this is one of the reasons that we like Spring and Summer. Too bad they usually only last a few weeks.

July Birthdays

Fr. Joe has been busy reordering supplies for the Saint Mary's Center and reorganizing the shelves so we can see what we have. We should have plenty of paper products, plates, napkins, towels, toilet paper, and placemats to last us for a few months. We also have lots of plastic table clothes, garbage bags, knives, forks, spoons and assorted beverage cup sizes. If you notice something running low, let Fr. Joe know.
