! WARNING
SCAM

We had another person using Fr. Joe's name to request emergency help because he was in a meeting. They asked people to purchase gift cards and then send him the numbers. One person bought $500 worth of cards but because the clerks warned them that it could be a scam, they didn't respond to the text. They were able to sell one of the cards but still have $400 worth of Apple cards to find a home for. If you could use them or know of someone that could, let Fr. Joe know. This is classic scammer technique and should never be responded to. A report on the news a few days ago said that billions of dollars are lost to scammers every year. The key tipoffs that something is a scam is that they will ask for gift cards because they can't be traced. They will also impart a sense of urgency that something needs to be done right away. Another tip is to check the phone number. This one had an area code of 908 which is northern New Jersey. Fr. Joe will never ask for money via text or email. It will always be in person or from the pulpit. So please be careful!

We are making slow but sure progress at getting through all the Mass Intentions. We still have just over 90 to go. We appreciate when people consider making a Memorial Donation and will acknowledge them immediately in the bulletin. Fr. Joe will offer special prayers for those remembered with Memorials and encourages others to use the Memorials to remind them to include these people and their families in their prayers. We are all encourage to pray regularly for those that have died and to remember that you can offer Plenary indulgences to help the souls in purgatory complete their journey to Heaven.

Memorials:

Fr. Jack Murray & Dave Meier

COPING WITH GRIEF AND LOSS

grief support group

If you are dealing with grief and loss in your life, you may want to join us this Thursday evening in the Spiritual Life Center at 7:00 pm to join with others dealing with loss in their lives.

It is time to start thinking about our next class of candidates to join the Church next Easter. We will plan on starting classes every two weeks sometime in September, but first we need people. If you know of someone that has been considering investigating the Catholic Faith, this would be a good opportunity for them to come and learn more. No obligation. It is also a way for current Catholics to dig deeper into their faith as we cover a multitude of topics that people may or may not be familiar with. Give Fr. Joe a call if you or someone you know is interested in knowing more about the journey.

Fr. Jack's house ownership has been legally transferred to our parish. We are still in the process of moving out his personal items and getting it ready for sale. Once we get things organized we will likely have a garage/yard sale so watch for future announcements.

James Semling, one of our Seminarians, was one happy person on Sunday when Fr. Joe gave him the Title and keys to Fr. Jack's 2010 Subaru Forester. It had just over 192,000 miles on it from all of Fr. Jack's travels around the state filling in for other priests. Paul Thompson and the Wednesday night boys club checked it over pretty good and gave it a good bill of health. Hopefully it will provide many years of service for James while he is in the Seminary and maybe even as a priest someday.

Anybody looking for an e-Bike? Fr. Jack enjoyed riding his e-Bike last year before his health deteriorated. It allowed him to travel farther and faster than before while still getting a workout. New Rad Power Bikes sell for $1,399. We are looking to find it a good home where someone will get some good use from it. If you are interested, let Fr. Joe know to arrange a test drive.

Make a Holy Moment

Immaculate Conception has been awarded 2 Grants for $2,500. The first grant will be for Evangelization and Outreach as we create a game room with Ping Pong and Foosball equipment for our youth to use is facilitating fellowship. The second grant will help support the Baby Boutique in the Tiny Tots Day Care where families that are struggling can get diapers and baby clothing.
