

Immaculate Conception Catholic Church & St. Theodore Mission

August 13th – 19th Sunday Ordinary Time

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

(Mt 14:29-31)

Weekly Mass Intentions

We are making slow but sure progress at getting through all the Mass Intentions. We still have just over 90 to go. We appreciate when people consider making a Memorial Donation and will acknowledge them immediately in the bulletin. Fr. Joe will offer special prayers for those remembered with Memorials and encourages others to use the Memorials to remind them to include these people and their families in their prayers. We are all encourage to pray regularly for those that have died and to remember that you can offer Plenary indulgences to help the souls in purgatory complete their journey to Heaven.

A CAMPAIGN FOR CATHOLIC LIFE

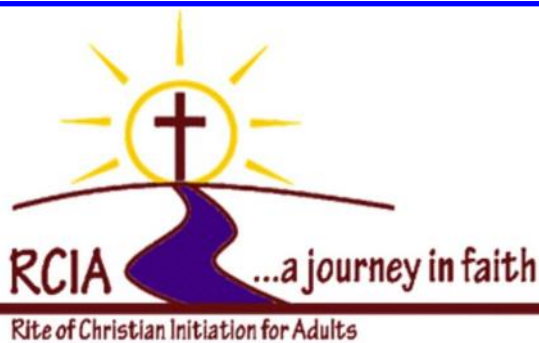

Fr. Joe has started doing the new Capital Campaign one-on-one talks with parishioners this past week. Don't be surprised when you get a call asking you to set aside some time to visit with him or one of the designated co-chairs of the campaign to discuss the details of the campaign how you can support this effort to help insure the continued viability of our Church in the Diocese and our Parish. The Bishop has already received commitments of over $2 million on his way to his personal goal of $14 million. The Diocese as a whole has a goal of $30 million. 40% of what we raise will stay in our parishes.

Memorials:

Fr. Jack Murray & Dave Meier

Requested by:
Kathy Isaacson

It is time to start thinking about our next class of candidates to join the Church next Easter. We will plan on starting classes every two weeks sometime in September, but first we need people. If you know of someone that has been considering investigating the Catholic Faith, this would be a good opportunity for them to come and learn more. No obligation. It is also a way for current Catholics to dig deeper into their faith as we cover a multitude of topics that people may or may not be familiar with. Give Fr. Joe a call if you or someone you know is interested in knowing more about the journey.

Melanie Marsh decided to take advantage of Fr. Jack's old e-bike being for sale. She took it for quick test ride and fell in love with the electric motor acceleration. It will make climbing up steep hills a lot easier and allow her to explore the roads and trails around the area. She also purchased one of Fr. Jack's old tables that she saw when she was picking up the helmet to go with the e-bike.

Tuesday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In addition to the norm Monday morning mass at 8:00 am in the Chapel, a Vigil Mass will be held on Monday at 5:30 pm in the Chapel of the SLC.

We will be having a garage sale at Fr. Jack's house, 901 Pennsylvania Ave. on Friday and Saturday from 9:00 am till 1:00 pm.. We have a garage full of items that have been moved up from the basement and from the rooms in the house, as well as the garage. We will need some help setting up so if you are free at 8:30 am, come over and we will put you to work sorting things out.

Come learn about The Art of Dying

As death approaches, the evil one tempts the dying in five distinctive ways in order to steal the soul from Heaven.

Our soul is tremendously more valuable than our bodies. Yet we fail to prepare for our death with the proper spiritual tools. Those tools are found in a 15th century Catholic literature titled "The Art of Dying." Dcn Paul will be explaining these Catholic writings on how to spiritually prepare for the death of a loved one or yourself.

Join Deacon Paul on Wednesday August 16th and August 23rd from 7 -8 pm in the Spiritual Life Center to learn about this 600 year old Catholic tradition to help protect the soul of your loved one and yourself from the snares of eternal death. Blessings Dcn Paul
