We had a little mix up with the City of Deer Lodge as to who is supposed to sell plots in the Catholic sections. We are the only church in town that actually owns the land that we bury people in. We have 4.7 acres total with much of it still available. The city sold 26 burial plots in our areas over the last few years for a total of $9,100. During this time we have been paying them $3,000 a year to maintain all our areas in the cemetery. So we will be asking for the money back or a 3 year moratorium on maintenance fees. In the mean time, if you would like to purchase a burial plot, they are $350 each. Many families buy a group of plots at one time so they can insure that everyone will be buried in the same area. The funeral homes should know about this arrangement if you are working through them, but just in case you may want to remind them if you are making arrangements for a burial and don't already have a plot purchased.

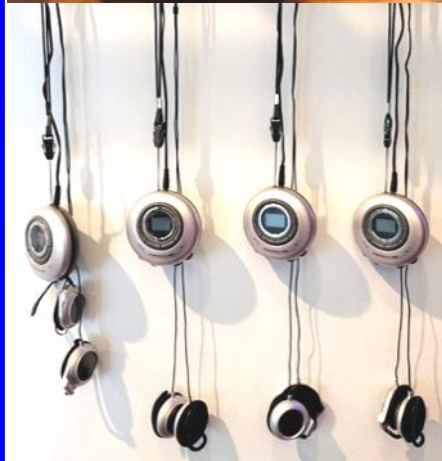

Our first Knights of Columbus Meeting will be next Tuesday, September 12th starting at 6:00 pm with the social. Fr. Joe has a potential project for the gang of putting together 2 ping pong tables and 2 foosball tables for those that might be up for a challenge.

We have some pretty nice sunflowers popping up in our wildflower garden. If we get some more sunny weather we may even get some sunflower seeds someday.

Make a Holy Moment

We have been getting good reviews from the people that have been taking advantage of the hearing aid devices. So, if you are struggling to hear the words of the Mass or Homilies, consider checking out one of these devices on Sunday to see if it helps you hear better. We just ask that you be sure to turn the power off after you are done so the batteries last more than one weekend. Also, be careful not to change the channels. We are broadcasting on channel 1 and if you change it to another channel you will get nothing but static. We are also finding that it is very easy to get the earpieces all tangled up in the neck cord so we ask that you try to keep them from getting wrapped up for the next person that decides to use them. We have a few more still in the box so if more people want to use the we should have it all covered.

It is time to start thinking about our next class of candidates to join the Church next Easter. We will plan on starting classes every two weeks sometime in September, but first we need people. If you know of someone that has been considering investigating the Catholic Faith, this would be a good opportunity for them to come and learn more. No obligation. It is also a way for current Catholics to dig deeper into their faith as we cover a multitude of topics that people may or may not be familiar with. Give Fr. Joe a call if you or someone you know is interested in knowing more about the journey.

A CAMPAIGN FOR CATHOLIC LIFE

Fr. Joe has been visiting with about 30 people to get the Capital Campaign going and this weekend will be the official kick-off. We have enlisted the help of parishioners from IC and St. Theo to help because there are too many people for Fr. Joe to visit on his own. Theresa Cameron, Patty Cook and Bill Lombardi will be helping from IC and Pat & Amy Riehl and Tana Bignell will be helping from St. Theo. In the coming week they will be calling or texting people to set up and time to visit for about 30 minutes to discuss the Capital Campaign and answer questions you may have. We appreciate you giving of your time to visit with them. If you want to talk to Fr. Joe directly, just let them know and arrangements will be made for him to come out or for you to stop by the office in Deer Lodge to talk. Thank You.
