We had a good turnout for our first RCIA class with 2 potential candidate and 3 existing church members supporting them and seeking to learn more about our Catholic Faith. We have other potential candidates that have expressed some interest and if you know of anyone else, it is not too late to sign up. We will meet every two weeks on Wednesday at 7:00 pm, so our next meeting will be October 25th.

KNEH at 93.7 is the broadcaster for Relevant Radio in the Helena area. They carry many of the national Catholic Relevant Radio shows but also have local Diocesan shows from our Bishop and others in our Diocese. They now have it available for streaming on the internet at KNEH.org so it can be available to us locally if we have internet access. Fr. Joe has been working with Rose Casey at KNEH to get some good listening alternatives for MSP inmates.

We are at over 50% of our goals for both the IC and St. Theo. Capital campaigns. Most of our parishioners have been visited and have the materials in their possession to make a decision on how much they can support this effort. We just need for them to turn in the commitment forms to let us know what they are willing to pledge. We realize that times are difficult for many families with fixed incomes, medical expenses, college tuition and all the other things that gnaw away at what we have to spend. If we put God first though and tithe as He has asked us to, to the Church and other charities, God has a way of making it up to us. God is not stingy with what he gives us, let's not be stingy with what we give Him.

We have a new poster for our 12 seminarians available in the back of the church. We are down 3 from last year but recruiting efforts are ongoing. Please remember to keep these young men in your prayers to give them perseverance on their journey to priesthood. Also prayer for our Bishop and our new vocation director Fr. Chris.

This may be your last chance to buy a cemetery plot for $350. The City will be taking over the responsibility for selling and maintaining the Catholic sections now so we don't have to pay the $3,000/year maintenance fee. They will keep the price of a plot at $350 until the end of October. They may or may not raise the fee after that. Most other cemeteries charge around $1,000/plot.

Looks like we have a deal pending to sell Fr. Jack's house, subject to an inspection not turning up anything major. A family with 4 children is willing to take it on and figure out a way to add some bedrooms for all the kids and a bathroom downstairs. The kids were particularly excited about the apple tree and all the grass to play on and bushes and other great hiding places.
