Support the CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

We received our final grant check for $1,800 from Catholic Home Missions which supports small rural parishes. Unfortunately their funding is drying up so we will not receive and further support.

Immaculate Conception is now at 148% and St. Theodore is at 160% of their respective goals. At this level we are not getting 60% of all money raised over the goal. That means we have $15,396 in funds for St. Theodore and $183,236 for Immaculate Conception to use for our programs and projects. If we reach 200% of goal we can get 100% of all extra money raised. Well done everyone!! We are on the home stretch now, working to get the last of the outstanding pledges turned in. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to give Fr. Joe a call to get answers.

BECAUSE HE FIRST Loved US...

A CAMPAIGN FOR CATHOLIC LIFE

We are in the process of moving to a new Online-Giving vendor, Give Central. Unfortunately, this will require setting things up on their system in the coming weeks. We will do everything we can to minimize the effort by populating fields with the necessary information, but you will need to re-enter your credit card or bank account information. Those items are always protected so they can't be stolen. You will only have to enter them once after which they will be available to reuse. If you are not using Online-Giving, now may be a good time to consider giving it a try.

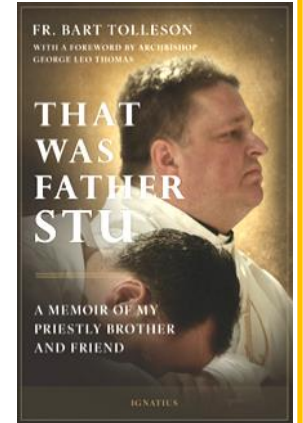

We have finished the first phase of upgrading to the new parish management software. According to the documentation, it was created especially for Catholic churches. All current information has been migrated over and additional information is being added. The company has been very good about fixing problems and helping us to learn the new systems. One of the ad-ons to the new system is the Evangelus system which we have started using to send out the weekly bulletin and messages.

The roof didn't pass inspection so we are going to have to fix it before we can put it back on the market. The potential leaks were covered with a tarp before the storm this week. When the weather clears the roofer will begin replacing all the shingles. Pray for good weather.

Father Bart Toleson from Helena has just released his new book on his years with Fr. Stu Long. They spent many hours together over the years and became great friends. They had much in common including the same Baptism day and Ordination day. Fr. Bart was instrumental in supporting Fr. Stu during his health struggles and in helping to get the Fr. Stu movie eventually made. You can order a copy at www.beyond227.org

Please be sure to welcome Lucinda and Scott Hoffman to our parish. They bought a house only a few blocks away from our church on Montana Avenue. Scott is a Knight of Columbus and will likely be joining us soon at our meetings. They were also active members in their prior parish serving as Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers.

The Capital Campaign will be completed at the beginning of December. We will have one last push to get all the outstanding pledges. We will have a final Commitment Day when everyone that comes to Mass will be given a card and asked to fill it out. It will help us get a final count of all those that have participated and those still considering a pledge. It will also allow us to get a count of those that have chosen not to participate. Once that is done, Fr. Joe will start displaying and handing out the Annual Catholic Campaign (ACA) literature. Many people have already responded to this fundraising effort when they received the envelopes that were mailed out a couple of weeks ago. This ACA campaign for $2 million is necessary to fund all the Diocesan programs still ongoing during this year like the $500k that is needed for Seminarian Education. It will also fund the "Encountering Love" efforts for evangelization.
