Next Weekend is Leadership Weekend

We will pass out commitment envelopes where you will be able to indicate if you have already made your pledge, would like to make a pledge or not make a pledge. This will be the last chance to commit to our capital campaign and officially close out our efforts. Thank You to everyone for your consideration and generosity to the Because He First Loved Us campaign.

The roofers finished the West side of the roof and are working on the East. With good weather it should only be a couple more days until the job is finished.

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) gang made it safely to Indianapolis. From left to right, Madison Thomas, Jacob Hansen, Joan Sewell, Lane Thomas (behind Joan), Ian Denty, Shawn Lombardi and Arriane Javier. They left early Wednesday morning by bus to catch the plane in Bozeman and arrived around 10:00 pm. They lost two hours going East. They don't look too tired though. They spent most of the day exploring the various exhibits, even one where Shawn was able to dunk Lane by hitting a small target hole. There was no water though, just plastic balls. They got front row seats to the "For King and Country" concert tonight and get to be part of the procession to start the evening activities. Based on the big smiles, it looks like they are having a good time. Hopefully we will be able to convince a few of them to share their experiences when they get back.

Make a Holy Moment

In November the Catholic Church focuses on the National Campaign for Human Development. These efforts work to help those that are living on the margins. Special handouts and donation envelopes are available in the back of the church. Donations can also be made using Online Giving.

We have the potential for swapping out our old Stations of the Cross in the IC Church with a set that were in St. John's church in Butte. They are made from carved wood and are approximately 20" wide by 28" tall. They would fit below the sconces but may be harder to see. They could also be placed above the sconces where the current stations are. Give this some thought and let Fr. Joe know your preference.
