A CAMPAIGN FOR CATHOLIC LIFE

Once again Thank You to everyone that participated in the Capital Campaign. Immaculate Conception Parish raised $450,310 in pledges to achieve 174% of our goal. That means we will have $224,486 coming back to our parish over the course of the next 5 years. St. Theodore Mission raised $103,600 and achieved 512% of their goal. They will have $81,376 coming back to them over the next 5 years. There may still be a few pledges that come in as they check on online donations that may have been made through the Campaign website. A final tally will be provided in the coming weeks after all the numbers are in.

The Knights of Columbus celebrated Christmas by having ribeye steak and potatoes this past week. They have been picking up a few new recruits and are always looking for more. They are also looking into putting on a Mardi-Gras dinner/festival in February as a fundraiser for the parish. So stay tuned for further announcements.

A special Thank You to the Knights who helped to set up our new Deep Fat Fryer on Monday. Brandon Puccinelli brought his plumbing tools and made sure that we had a proper installation and things won't go boom any day soon. With 150,000 BTU we should be able to do some serious fish fries this coming Lent.

The Annual Capital Campaign (ACA) is off and running. IC is already at 75% of goal while St. Theodore is at 45%. Brochures and contribution envelopes are available in the back of the Churches.
