Snow Removal Ministry

Ted Mizner, Andy Cook and maybe a few others have been shoveling the sidewalks these last few days of snow. We would like to get a formal list of those willing to take turns shoveling the sidewalks so it doesn't fall on just a few to get the job done. There will be a signup sheet in the back of the church for individuals or families to identify the week(s) they would be willing to commit to keeping the steps, ramps and sidewalks clear of snow after a snowfall. Thanks you for your support of this ministry.

Advent starts this week and to help us through the season we have a couple of books. Many people have asked about the Little Blue Book so we will be getting a number of copies again this year. They are available in the back of the church. We also got a good deal on Matthew Kelly's new book, "Holy Moments". We were able to purchase the books for $1 a copy so we bought a couple of cases. So don't be afraid to grab a copy for yourself and maybe even copy for a friend. We also have a few left over copies of previous Matthew Kelly books that will set out. The books will be on the tables in the back of the church. Be sure to get a copy for your spiritual reading this Advent season.

Make a Holy Moment

A small group of people were able to gather to celebrate Fr. Jack Murray's 85th birthday this past Wednesday. He is getting out regularly using our church to get some safe ice free steps in. He still has more chemo to go through so be sure to keep him in your prayers.

Bishop Vetter has announced that we will be allowed to start offering the Precious Blood beginning with the First Sunday of Advent at the end of November. If you are interested in being an Extraordinary Minister (EM) of the Precious Blood, let Fr. Joe know so he can add you to the list and get you the EM refresher checklist.

Many hands made for quick work in setting up the tables for the Thanksgiving Day Dinner. We also had a number of volunteers from many churches that helped serving all the food and the cleanup. Fr. Joe's brother Fred (the guy with the white beard) came over from Livingston and helped Fr. Joe cook and debone the turkeys. We had just over 110 people who attended along with the 15-20 who were helping out. We have lots of leftovers, especially pumpkin pies. They will be left in the cooler in the kitchen for people to come and get. You can also bring some of your own Tupperware and help yourself to the leftover turkey and dressing in the cooler.

We have some very talented individuals in our parish that did this welcoming bulletin board in the Saint Mary's Center with the names of our youth.
