June 16th - 11th Sunday OT

With what can we compare the kingdom God?

It is like a grain
of mustard seed,
the smallest of
all the seeds on earth yet when it is sown it grows
up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs.

Mark 4:30-31

This is the last week for the Catholic Home Missions collection. Envelopes are in the back of the church. We have benefited from over $7,000 worth of grants over the years to help us with our evangelization efforts.

Knights of Columbus meeting this coming Tuesday in the Saint Mary's Center starting at 6:00 pm. This will be the last meeting of the Knights until the Fall.

Be Bold—Be Catholic

The Seminarians joined Joan and the youth group in a night of evangelization and bowling. I hear that Jacob had the best score of the evening. They are really enjoying their time with the youth and visiting with the parishioners and sharing their life stories. They really enjoy their coffee, so don't be afraid to invite them out for a cup. They are very good at feeding themselves and eating healthy meals like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

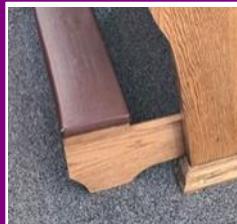

Fr. Joe has been keeping the seminarians very busy this past week. They trimmed all the trees and bushes, mowed and trimmed the lawn, detailed his vehicles, cleaned the garage, sprayed the Peace Park for bugs, set up the SMC for the Barn Dance, went along on visits to the Ivy Nursing Home for anointings and Communion, visited with inmates at the prison, visited someone that is dying, went bowling with the youth group, and had dinner with Hal and the Hollenbacks.

Meet our Tiny-Tots neighbors. Quinn Jacobson and Kenzi Meagher can support up to 16 Tiny-Tots at a time and often even have relatively newborns in the mix. They also have some kids that stay with them after school until their parents can come and get them. They focus on serving parents that work at the prison and don't seem to have any problem keeping their roles full. They really enjoy the nice big back yard with all the grass and toys to play with. Lately they have been filling up multiple swimming pools and various water attractions and sprinklers for the kids to run through. Our grass will be really green this year. We are still working on a way to keep them from throwing or eating the rocks.

Seminarian John Cooney volunteering at the Rialto.

Upgrading the kneelers in the church was one of the top vote getters for projects to pursue. Fr. Joe asked for some quotes on replacement pads and the first quote came in just under $6,000. Fr. Joe will need a committee to help pick the colors and materials for the kneelers. Any volunteers? The fuller kneeler replacement quote was $23,000!

Church Classics 10*

There will be a coffee and treats social in the SMC immediately after Mass for people to visit and ask questions.
